

DEDICATION

This work is dedicated to all those who labor extracting rock from the earth as well as to those who process and transport it. More especially it is a testament to John Bricker, John Montpiere, Hungarian No. 64, William R. Lour, Samuel Smith, John Reigel, and all others who died while performing their duties for the Hummelstown Brownstone Company.

Entrance, Old Library, Millersville University – Millersville